

Vacancies at Legal Initiative for Forest & Environment (LIFE)

Legal Initiative for Forest and Environment (LIFE) is a New Delhi based organization with zonal offices at Kolkata and Pune focusing on environmental law and advocacy by partnering with organization across the world. It hosts the EIA Response Centre (ERC) as well as The Access Initiative - South Asia Secretariat (TAI). We are looking for a dynamic, energetic and a creative individual for the following positions:

1. Analyst/Associate Analyst (Water)

Qualification, Experience & Skills

- Postgraduate degree in Environmental Science/s or related discipline with at least 2-3 years of working experience on water pollution issues.
- Strong numerical data analytical skill and familiarity with the creation and maintenance of databases.
- Candidate having a PhD degree or specific knowledge/experience on hydrology/waste water treatment plant/pollutant dispersal modelling will be preferred
- Excellent communication skills both written and spoken in English with analytical attitude.
- Passion for environment conservation is a must.

Broad Responsibilities

- Critically analyzing EIA reports on water related parameters.
- Carry out ground truthing and field investigation related to any upcoming projects.
- Prepare policy and technical research publications.
- Prepare reports for the teams and key donors.

2. Analyst/Associate Analyst (Air)

Qualification, Experience & Skills

- Postgraduate degree in Environmental Science/s or related discipline with at least 2-3 years of working experience on air pollution issues.
- Strong numerical data analytical skill and familiarity with the creation and maintenance of databases.
- Candidate having a PhD degree or specific knowledge/experience on air modelling/pollution control device/meteorological data analysis will be preferred.
- Excellent communication skills both written and spoken in English with analytical attitude.
- Passion for environment conservation is must.

Broad Responsibilities

- Critically analyzing EIA reports on water related parameters.
- Carry out ground truthing and field investigation related to any upcoming projects.
- Prepare policy and technical research publications.
- Prepare reports for the teams and key donors.

3. Analyst/Associate Analyst (GIS &RS)

Qualification, Experience & Skills

- Postgraduate degree in Environmental Science/s or related discipline with Diploma in Remote Sensing and Geographical Information System (GIS) from a reputed organization.
- Capability to undertake satellite image data processing and GIS work through open source system on forestry, land use and pollution related subjects.
- Excellent communication skills both written and spoken in English with research attitude.
- Strong IT skills and familiarity with the creation and maintenance of databases.
- Candidates with one year practical experience in environment sector will be preferred.
- Passion for environment conservation is must.

Broad Responsibilities

- Ensure delivery of key targets and play a leading role in meeting the organizational need on Remote Sensing and GIS related work.
- Develop a road map for developing in-house capacity on Remote Sensing and GIS related work.

- Train internal staff and stake holder on basic use of Remote Sensing and GIS in environmental conservation.
- Create and maintain repository of maps and GIS output.
- Prepare reports as per need of the organization/donors.

The Candidates must apply with the latest bio-data, last salary drawn and 2 references along with one page note on why they want to join the environmental advocacy group.

Interested candidates may write by 29th December, 2018 to: legal@lifeindia.net.in with copy to sobanrawat@lifeindia.net.in